Annex C: New collectives and partnerships

Temasek Shophouse Collective

The Temasek Shophouse Collective is the first time Temasek Shophouse (TSH) is creating a programme that allows the selected organisations to purposefully utilise the space at TSH, network within the Temasek Trust ecosystem, and engage among like-minded actors to foster more collaborations to scale impact.

As a pilot initiative, TSH aims to work with up to 50 organisations to be part of the inaugural cohort of the Temasek Shophouse Collective. Organisations that have joined the collective include:

raiSE

The Singapore Centre for Social Enterprise, raiSE supports existing and aspiring Social Enterprises by providing credibility through membership, capacity building programmes, access to networks and grant funding. raiSE advocates for businesses to embrace three key Social Enterprise characteristics: intentionality in making social impact a core business objective, additionality in measuring performance through a double bottom line approach that balances financial sustainability with social impact, and proportionality in allocating resources toward creating social impact. For more information, please visit www.raise.sg

Inclus

Inclus is a social enterprise empowering people with disabilities to reach their fullest potential in life through gainful employment and independence.

STEMIE Advantages

STEMIE Advantages was founded in 2021 to equip students from underrepresented communities with STEM and innovation skills.

Singapore International Film Festival (SGIFF)

Founded in 1987, the Singapore International Film Festival (SGIFF) is the largest and longest-running film event in Singapore known for its dynamic programming, and focus on groundbreaking Asian cinema for Singapore and the region. Beyond its annual Festival programme, SGIFF is also dedicated to nurturing and championing local and regional talent through various industry initiatives, such as the Asian Producers Network and the SGIFF Industry Days conference event, under one umbrella to meet the evolving and complex demands of the film industry.

Impact Storytellers Collective

As an enabler for the social impact ecosystem, TSH will be developing a dynamic content house that empowers storytelling as a force for change. Impact Storytellers Collective aims to convene diverse storytellers through workshops and programmes, equipping them with skills while fostering a community dedicated to creating impact through storytelling.

Programme benefits include:

- Infrastructure & Resources: Storytellers will be provided with:
  - A fully equipped studio designed for broadcast and content creation, equipped with professional-grade video production capabilities.
  - An interactive sandbox that leverages digital art and immersive media to engage audiences.
  - Filming-friendly zones, exhibition spaces, and screening opportunities throughout the Temasek Shophouse to showcase impact-driven stories.
- Skills Development: Storytellers will be able to attend workshops, masterclasses and related programmes covering the latest trends and techniques in impact filmmaking, social media, and immersive media.
- Opportunities for collaboration: Storytellers will be able to work together on impact projects, fostering a spirit of collaboration, mutual growth and collective impact.
- Network and Mentorship: Storytellers will gain access to industry experts who can provide guidance and support with the potential of catalysing greater impact through storytelling. This also includes networking opportunities with fellow storytellers, experts, and key partners in the social impact ecosystem.
- Temasek Shophouse Collective: Volunteers and alumni can join the Temasek Shophouse Collective for a year with perks like discounted facility use, F&B, and exclusive event invitations.
- Showcase Opportunities: Storytellers will have opportunities to feature projects through screenings, exhibitions, digital displays, and film festivals.
